Document	Minimum Retention Period	Reason	Disposal
Magazines and journals	Council may wish to keep its own publications. For others retain for as long as they are useful and relevant.	The Legal Deposit Libraries Act 2003 (the 2003 Act) requires a local council which after 1st February 2004 has published works in print (this includes a pamphlet, magazine or newspaper, a map, plan, chart or table) to deliver, at its own expense, a copy of them to the British Library Board (which manages and controls the British Library). Printed works as defined by the 2003 Act published by a local council therefore constitute materials which the British Library holds.	Bin if applicable.
Record-keeping
To ensure records are easily accessible it is necessary to comply with the following: • A list of files stored in cabinets will be kept • Electronic files will be saved using relevant file names	The electronic files will be backed up periodically on a portable hard drive and also in the cloud-based programme supplied by the Council's IT company.	Management	Documentation no longer required will be disposed of, ensuring any confidential documents are destroyed as confidential waste. A list will be kept of those documents disposed of to meet the requirements of the GDPR.

Document	Minimum Retention Period	Reason	Disposal
General correspondence	Unless it relates to specific categories outlined in the policy, correspondence, both paper and electronic, should be kept. Records should be kept for as long as they are needed for reference or accountability purposes, to comply with regulatory requirements or to protect legal and other rights and interests.	Management	Bin (shred confidential waste). A list will be kept of those documents disposed of to meet the requirements of the GDPR.
Correspondence relating to staff	If related to Audit, see relevant sections above. Should be kept securely and personal data in relation to staff should not be kept for longer than is necessary for the purpose it was held. Likely time limits for tribunal claims between 3–6 months. Recommend this period be for 3 years.	After an employment relationship has ended, a council may need to retain and access staff records for former staff for the purpose of giving references, payment of tax, national insurance contributions and pensions, and in respect of any related legal claims made against the council.	Confidential waste. A list will be kept of those documents disposed of to meet the requirements of the GDPR.

Documents from legal matters, negligence and other torts
Most legal proceedings are governed by the Limitation Act 1980 (as amended). The 1980 Act provides that legal claims may not be commenced after a specified period. Where the limitation periods are longer than other periods specified the documentation should be kept for the longer period specified. Some types of legal proceedings may fall within two or more categories.
If in doubt, keep for the longest of the three limitation periods.

Planning Applications

All planning applications and relevant decision notices are available at CDC. There is no requirement to retain duplicates locally. However, all paper plans which have been issued by CDC will be retained until the building work is completed; contentious plans and applications which have been refused will be retained for future information. All Parish Council recommendations in connection with these applications are recorded in the Council Minutes and are retained indefinitely and are held on the CDC Planning Portal. Correspondence received in connection with applications will be retained as stated above.

To be used in conjunction with the Document Retention and Disposal Policy adopted by the Council at a meeting on 17th June 2026 to be reviewed in two years or sooner should circumstance or legislation dictate.
