

CAROLINE ELMITT

I am a relative newcomer to Bodicote, but Chaired the Parish Council in my previous village and believe in the importance of contributing to village life.

I strongly support the idea of village community and maintaining Bodicote as the rural parish it has been for generations. I love the sense of history in the village, enjoy walking my dogs daily in the area and have also got involved with Banbury u3a.