

Joyce Washburn

A Bodicote resident for more than 45 years, I joined Bodicote Parish Council in 1988 and was vice chair of the council before being appointed chair following the departure of Cllr Ron Glyn from the area.

My main interest over the years has been planning, education and sport and it is my wish to see Bodicote remain a thriving village community.