A TRUE HOME-FROM-HOME

Where people are known, valued and cared for as individuals.

Choosing a care home is about much more than care - it is about finding somewhere that feels like home. At our family-run home in the heart of Bodicote, we take time to know each resident personally and the little things that make them smile.

LIFE AT FAIRHOLME HOUSE

From home-cooked meals and time in the garden to activities, companionship or simply relaxing with a cup of tea, residents are supported to enjoy everyday life in the way that feels right for them.
