

I moved to Bodicote in 2023 and have found the village to be very welcoming. I am keen to support the local community and village and see it thrive.

As an avid walker I love the village and surrounding areas and spend lots of time walking my 2 dogs.

I am looking forward to being part of the parish council, working with the other councillors to make Bodicote a great place to live for everyone.

Khym